

Application for Membership Ephraim Yacht Club, Ephraim, Wisconsin

Members

Section 1. Classes. Any person who has an active interest in fostering the purposes of the club may apply for membership. Classes of Members and standards for eligibility for such classes shall be as follows:

- (a) Family. Family membership shall be for anyone who has the following marital/family status:
 - (i) Married and under seventy-one years old; or
 - (ii) With one or more children under the age of 25, regardless of marital status or age.

The spouse of a Family Member shall have all the privileges of Family membership, subject to Section 3(b) of Article II of the Bylaws. In the event of the divorce of a Family Member, each spouse shall have the right to remain a member without payment of another initiation fee. Beginning in the year after the date of divorce, each spouse shall be responsible for paying membership dues based on his or her new class of membership. (For example, divorced members with custody of children under age 25 will continue to pay for a Family membership; divorced members without custody of children under age 25, or divorced members all of whose children are over age 25 would be eligible for Single membership.)

- (b) Student. Shall be under 25 years of age, unmarried, may not be the child of a Family Member and shall have no vote.
- (c) Junior. Shall be under 25 years of age, unmarried, and the child of a Family, Life or Honorary Member. A Junior Member shall pay no dues and have no vote. A Junior Member may become a Single or Family Member at any time by paying Single or Family Member dues but which shall not include any initiation fee if the Junior Member becomes a Single or Family Member within one year following his or her 25th birthday.
- (d) Single. Shall be an unmarried person at least 25 and less than 71 years of age without children under the age of 25.
- (e) Senior. Shall be a person age 71 or older without children under the age of 25. The spouse of a Senior Member shall have all the privileges of Senior membership.

Section 2. Membership Year. The membership year shall be June 1 through May 31. New Members who join after August 31 of a year shall be granted membership for the following year.

Section 3. Reinstatement. Former Members whose membership was terminated for non-payment of dues or who resigned while in good standing may rejoin within two (2) years of the May 31 date upon which their membership expired by paying a reinstatement fee as determined by the Board of Directors. The full initiation fee will be assessed for a lapse of more than two (2) years.
